

ARTIST IN RESIDENCE 2019 – ARTS ENRICHMENT PROGRAM FOR STRATFORD ELEMENTARY SCHOOL

This document contains the information required for Artists to provide the Town of Stratford with pricing to develop and deliver an arts and culture program to students at the Stratford Elementary School.

The Town of Stratford is seeking to engage a professional Artist(s) to develop and deliver an arts enrichment program (excluding the visual arts) to all classes of grade six (6) students enrolled in the 2019-2020 curriculum year at Stratford Elementary School, estimated to be eight (8) classes.

The objective of the program should be to give the children maximum opportunity for personal expression, healthy activity, and expanded knowledge of various cultural art forms reflecting the growing diversity within their own community. The development and delivery of the program, including equipment and supplies as required, is to provide for 40 hours of instruction (five (5) hours to each of the eight (8) classes) and must be within the Town of Stratford's budget of $4,250.00.

The scope of service to be provided includes program development, program delivery and reporting.

Program Development: To include, but not necessarily be limited to, meeting with appropriate staff at the Stratford Elementary School to discuss mutual goals for deliverables; preparing and presenting a detailed class timetable; identifying additional support if required; and, preparing a 5-part program which demonstrates continuity in skill development and cultural/historical content.

It is anticipated that one (1) hour per every hour of instruction would be allotted to program development.

Development = 40 hours

Program Delivery: To include preparation for and clean-up after classes, for 40 hours of in class instruction.

It is anticipated that one (1) hour per every hour of instruction would be allotted to preparation and clean-up.

Preparation/clean-up = 40 hours

Instruction = 40 hours

Reporting: The successful proponent will maintain regular contact, by phone or email, with the Program Leader throughout the term of the project; will submit time sheets to the Town of Stratford on a bi-weekly basis, in advance of remunerations; and, will deliver to the Town of Stratford a final report and program evaluation within one week of completion of the program delivery.

It is anticipated that ten (10) hours would be allotted to the reporting tasks described above.

Reporting = 10 hours

Total Estimated Hours = 130
